

Published Role Title	BI Engineer (SYS-51641)
Type of Role	Perm
Location	Street, Somerset
Job Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Partner with Business Units to identify opportunities to leverage data, increase efficiency and automate processes• Develop company level reports, dashboards and ad-hoc analyses which enable enterprise data to be exploited to better serve our customers• Interpret and analyse data to specific business questions and provide regular KPI reporting• Build and maintain Data Literacy modules• Deliver Data Literacy training to broad knowledge worker groups and actively participate in the BI, Data & Analytics CoP (Community of Practice)• Ensure data quality is maintained for existing use cases and support the assessment for new use cases• Validate business developed reports and assets• Work alongside Data Engineers to develop the Data Products
Skills, Knowledge & Experience
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 2 years experience developing BI tools• A' Level education in a numerate discipline or equivalent experience• Proficient in Power BI & Power Query• Sound knowledge of SQL and experience of at least one other common programming language (e.g., Python, Spark, R)• Capable in data provision using Synapse or equivalent• Experience in Retail / Supply Chain is desirable• Familiarity with Data Management practices including Data Governance and MDM• Knowledge of Data Modelling• Adept at query & report/dashboard design• Strong analytical skills• Good written and verbal communication skills• Strong stakeholder management / influencing skills• Experience of Agile development approaches	